By the way, there are automatic notifications of all the important matches. So, wherever you are, you can always rely on this mini-TV in your smartphone! This app provides live streaming of all kinds of sports, not just football. However, even if we are talking only about football streaming here, this app has a number of decent features that make it stand out from the others. You will get access to more than 65 live channels. The most popular ones, such as CBS, CBS Sports Networks, FOX, NBC, FS1, NBCSN, NFL Network, NFL RedZone, NBA TV, beIN Sports networks, and many others, will be available at any time. What is more, new channels are added regularly. The app highlights all the essential events from the sports world, for instance, NFL, NBA, MLB, and so on. There is also regional sports coverage. Another advantage is that the app has 30 hours of Cloud DVR space. So, in case you miss a match you can watch it later - it will be in the program. You've got three days to watch that game. The app is multi-functional and works not only with the iPhone but also with iPad and Apple TV. Now there's also an Android version of the app. The quality of streams is top. The app includes over 10,000 hours of on-demand TV shows and movies - you can watch those between football matches. Finally, the app has been praised by such authoritative sources as Forbes and BGR. This app is literally a full-packed TV on your gadget. With it, you can watch any football channel, do live streaming and other things for football fans. There are such options as Live Scores, Football Video Highlights, Betting Tips & Daily News. You can watch any matches and leagues across the globe - no matter if it's Europe, UK, USA Sport, the Europa League, the Champions League, Asian Sport, or Euro & World Cup - they are all available. All you have to do is choose the game you want to watch and the app will show you all the information on that match - when and where it takes or took place. The impressive range of TV channels is accessible for watching: Sky Net Sports, ESPN, SuperSport, Bein, Silk Sports, Sports Klub, Dubai Racing, Eurosport, Russian Sport, Motor Sports, NFL Network, Pac 12, and so on. What is more, there are such options as Score Preview and Predictions. You will discover betting tips and live scores that you will be able to see while streaming. Besides, the app contains a collection of memorable videos or cuts from remarkable games. Football Live TV is supported by the Chromecast. ESPN One of the most popular sports streaming app. ESPN, is also a great choice for watching football live streams. As soon as you launch it you see lots of channels available with different kinds of sport. We recommend going to the news page and then choose the "football" category - therefore you will see the latest news about it and the announcement of the future games broadcasts. What is more, you can find any stream from the past in the app and then find out all the information about the game - the teams, players, scores, time, and many more. All the facts are placed conveniently on the tables. And even if you can't watch the live game you can always catch up with live scores so you're aware of the game process. You will discover that the following channels are available in the ESPN app: ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN3, ESPN4, SECN. The app itself is owned by Disney corporation. The fans of European football can be disappointed a little because ESPN is an American app and its main concern is American football. Therefore, the data about the European football matches can sometimes be inaccurate and the range of games broadcasted isn't that diverse as we would like it to be. What is more, note the ESPN works not in every country (that's often the main concern of the disappointed users). However, it's definitely one of the best apps to watch NFL. You may also like: 9 Best Apps to Watch Sports Highlights (Android & iOS) Sports have always been popular and our time is no exception. important point is that this app is absolutely FREE when you download it and you don't have to pay anything while using it. Stay on top to date on sports events, especially football! Hurry up and download CBS Sports app. Spain is known for its football clubs, best football players, and for being the world's football champion in 2010. Therefore, for all the fans of Spanish football, there is an excellent app LaLigaSportstv. But who said you can't watch games of Spanish teams with foreigners here? The real reason why we added this app specifically to our list is that it is remarkable for its functionality and user-friendly interface. When you first open the app, you get to the main page where you can choose which kind of sports you want to watch. After choosing football, LaLiga will provide you the latest news from the football world, the schedule of live streams, and the video highlights from the past games. You can also watch sports channels right in the app. In addition, when you first open it, you can choose several kinds of sports as your favorite ones and then the app will be displaying news about them first each time you open it. What is more, you can input the information about your favorite football team to the app and the news about it will be always displayed in the first place! There are literally tons of videos and highlights about football even though the app is concentrated on Spanish football mainly. We would recommend LaLiga to all the football fans out there. FotMob is an app both for Android and iOS that lets you track scores and see match stats. Let's be honest, watching streams consumes lots of data, so if your device is not connected to WiFi, it may not be an option for you. The good news is that you can follow your favorite games without watching them. This app, as well as the ones below, allows you to update information about the ongoing matches, see scores and read comments. It may be not as entertaining as watching football but it is something and if you are a big football fan, you will probably appreciate it. This app lets you follow matches from Premier League, La Liga, Serie A, Ligue 1, Champions League, FA Women's Super League, and many others. You can listen to audio comments in 10 different languages. If you've got special preferences, you can create a list of your favorites and read or listen to only what's interesting to you. In sum, this is a very nice app that lets you stay updated on your favorite teams' games. Download FotMob now and be the first to know who scored when! Yahoo Sport: Football & More We didn't place Yahoo higher because it's more a general sports streaming app. however, the main advantage of it is that it makes the special focus on football. The search engine Yahoo might be in the past, however, its streaming service is quite nice. When you first open the app you need to create your account so the app could provide your personalized feed and recommendations. You will see on the main page all the latest news from the sports world from different categories. You can also find the information about the game that you didn't see and find out the scores, the history of the game, and so on. In the football section, you will discover tons of information - the announcements of future tournaments, information about football teams, best players, latest news, analytics of the past games, and many more. It might seem like a lot at the beginning, but the interface is designed quite conveniently, so you won't feel overwhelmed or something. In Yahoo sports, you will find the broadcasts of any football league on the planet and the information about each team and each player. You can also watch live sports channels if you want. We also need to mention here if you prefer your streaming apps compact and focused, this one is not the best option for you. GoalAlert is in many ways similar to the previous app. It lets you get notifications about scores. You can follow all the matches of all the European leagues. There are no audio comments but the app is light and fast. You can change the sound of notifications if you want to. The app goes well both with Android and iOS. The design is wonderful. If you want something simple that lets you learn about your most expected matches, this is a great option to try out! If you are a fan of La Liga and Europa soccer leagues, then this app is a must-have. The application allows you to get notifications of important events and scores. You can view the games' schedule and plan ahead which ones you'll be able to watch. If you can't make time for watching your favorite team playing, you can use the app for getting score notifications. The app lets you create a favorites list as well as get the recent news from the football world. This is an official La Liga app so be sure all the facts are checked and proven. You may also like: 7 Best apps to watch NFL games on Android & iOS Liga is an app for Android users that is very convenient for updating scores in football matches.
